

SPOKEN WORD POWER OPEN CALL

TERMS & CONDITIONS

1. You will receive your login password via email within one working day of submitting your registration form.
2. In signing up to the Spoken Word Power Open Call, you are agreeing to be contacted by Eastside about the Open Call, as well as other educational programmes relevant to your school.
3. You will receive one account log-in that will be linked to the email address on the sign-up form.
4. Account log-in details may be shared with other staff members within the school attached to the account, but must not be shared with individuals or organisations outside of the school attached to the account.
5. Eastside Educational Trust owns all Content as part of the Spoken Word Power Open Call, and all intellectual property therein is protected by appropriate intellectual property, copyright and trademark law in the UK and internationally. By signing up to the Spoken Word Power Open Call, you are agreeing not to copy, publish, republish, redistribute, sell, license or otherwise make available any Content; remove or alter any copyright or trademark notices from any Content or copies thereof; or otherwise infringe Eastside Educational Trust's intellectual property rights.